

List of Eligible Expenses

Abortions, legal
Acupuncture
Alcoholism treatment
Ambulance service
Artificial limbs
Artificial Teeth
Birth control pills
Birth prevention surgery
Braces
Braille books and magazines - the part of the cost that is more than the price of regular books and magazines.
Chiropractors
Christian Science practitioner's fees
Co-Insurance payments
Contacts and supplies
Cosmetic surgery - only eligible if surgery is necessary to correct a deformity due directly to a congenital abnormality, a personal injury resulting from an accident or trauma, or a disfiguring disease.
Cost of operations and related treatments
Cost for physical or mental illness confinement
Crutches
Dental expenses for cosmetic reasons - see "Cosmetic surgery" rules
Dental expenses
Diagnostic fees
Electrolysis - see "Cosmetic surgery" rules
Fee of practical nurse
Fees of licensed osteopaths
Hair transplants see "Cosmetic surgery" rules
Hearing devices and batteries
Home improvements - Medically necessary and can not increase the value of your property
Hospital expenses
Insulin
Insurance deductible
Lasik Eye Surgery
Legal fees necessary to authorize treatment for mental illness

Laboratory fees
Lateral by Prescription in a location where the sale and use are legal.
Lead base paint removal - for children with lead poisoning.
Membership fees in association furnishing medical services, hospitalization, and clinical care.
Nurses' fees - including nurse's board and social security tax paid.
Obstetrical expense
Operations, Optometrist
Orthodontia
Orthopedic shoes
Over-the-Counter Medications does not include vitamins, or anything for the general well-being of the participant
Oxygen
Physicians fees
Prescribed medicines - must be prescribed by a physician filled by a pharmacist.
Psychiatric care
Psychologist fees, Psychoanalysis
Physicals
"Seeing-eye" dog and its upkeep
Special communication equipment for the deaf
Special education for the blind
Special school for a handicapped person
Special school for a mentally handicapped person
Special medical equipment
Special plumbing for a handicapped person
Sterilization fees
Surgical fees
Therapeutic care for drug addiction
Transportation expenses - for the retention of medical services
Vision Expenses - Glasses, Frames, Office Visit Charges
Weight loss and Smoking cessation programs - only if prescribed by a physician due to a medical condition
Wheelchairs
X-rays

Expenses NOT Eligible

- Cosmetic surgery;
- Expenses for exercise, dance, health club, nutrition, weight reduction and massage therapy programs that are merely beneficial for general health and well-being - even if the activities are prescribed by a physician.

This is meant to be only a partial list. For more specific information, please contact our office.